

First of Political Forum Talks At Methodist Church on Sunday

The first of a series of programs under the title of the "Christian Political Responsibility Forum," sponsored by the Committee for Social Concern of the First Methodist Church of Torrance, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday with Assemblyman Vincent Thomas and Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of the Torrance Unified School District as the featured speakers.

Assemblyman Thomas, veteran representative of the 68th Assembly District in Sacramento, will discuss reappointment, the water bond issue, metropolitan transit problems, and other live issues confronting residents during the coming years in the State Legislature.

Dr. Hull will discuss the issues confronting the local school system, giving particular emphasis to the override election scheduled for Oct. 11. He also will discuss plans for School facilities and examine Public Law 874 by which Torrance loses thousands of dollars each year.

On succeeding Sunday evenings, the Republicans and GOP candidates will come before the forum on Oct. 9; the Democrats on Oct. 16; discussions of foreign policy and peace on Oct. 23; race relations and civil rights on Oct. 30; and discussions of medical care for the aged at the final meeting Nov. 6.

Board to Take Bids on School Bonds Oct. 25

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn announced yesterday that in compliance with a request by the Torrance Unified School District Board, the Board of Supervisors has agreed to sell $2,000,000 in Torrance school bonds, with the bids on the purchase of securities to be opened on Oct. 25.

The bonds to be sold will be known as series E, and were included in a $15,000,000 bond issue approved by voters of the Torrance school district on Oct. 14, 1958.

Since that time, a total of $4,980,000 par value bonds have been sold in four blocks. Hahn pointed out that the Torrance School District has been one of the fastest-growing in the nation and that the proceeds will enable school officials to provide badly-needed facilities.

Swim Party Hosts

Hosting a swim party and luau recently were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Olson, 2554 Sonoma. After a refreshing swim a delicious luau was enjoyed by Messrs. and Mmes. Jim Fornelli, Bob Klaseges, Jerry Young, Jim Carlin, Hiram Callison, Lester Sondstrom, Don Bryants, Norris Cartenson and Rocky Janasik.

READY FOR RALLY . . . Setting the stage for tomorrow's giant outdoor rally to welcome Gov. Mark Hatfield, of Oregon, to the Harbor Area are GOP leaders of the 17th Congressional District. From the left are Mrs. Jack Drown, Rolling Hills; Tom Coffee, GOP Congressional candidate; Mrs. Manley L. Natland, president of the Palos Verdes Peninsular Club of Federated Republican Women, and Charles W. Soderstrom, chairman of the 17th Congressional District. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, vice presidential candidate for the GOP, was scheduled to speak at the rally, but schedules could not be arranged.

CHEFS AT WORK . . . Members of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church parish in Lomita are getting ready for the church's 14th annual bazaar Saturday and Sunday. Booths, Mexican food, games, and other attractions will be open from 12 noon to 9 p.m. both days, and a barbecue dinner will be served from 12 noon until 7 p.m. on Sunday. Here three of the top chefs of the parish get the fixin's ready for the barbecue Sunday.
